families, and is almost without funds.
The Citizens' Relief Association has, for several weeks past, donated $100 a week to help the work. A good deal of disappointment is felt over the very small amount appropriated by the Council—$150.
Major Ginter left the organization $5.000
in his will, but this the executors refused to pay, on the ground that the Mission was not a chartered organization at the time of Major Ginter's death.

The death of that philanthropist was a severe blow to the Mission, as he always responded to the calls made upon him, and never gave less than $500 a

There is much poverty in the city at the present time, and the need for re-lief is in hundreds of instances very pressing. Twenty-seven ladies, who are con-nected with the Mission, are devoting their whole time to this charitable work.

Virginia State Sunday School Association.

The following notice is being sent to the papers throughout Virginia; The minth annual convention of the Virginia Sirts Sunday-School Association of all Protestant denominations, will be held in the city of Richmond, Va., Wednesday. Thursday, and Friday, March 8, 9, and 10, 1890. A cordial invitation from the Sun-day-school workers in Richmond is extended, and all are assured of a warm Christian welcome. Homes will be provided for delegates or alternates. Re-duced rates of travel will doubtless be given on all routes.

Each organized county is entitled to five delegates, in addition to the county presidents and secretaries. Each Sunday school is entitled to one delegate, in addition to its superintendent. All ministers of the Protestant denominations are, exofficio, members of the convention, and are earnestly requested to attend. It is hoped that every county in the State will be represented.

Will be represented.

Every Sunday-school worker in Virginia who reads this notice is earnestly requested to so that the Sunday school to which he belongs will take up one collection before the 1st of March, 1899, unless his school has already done so, and for-ward the amount to Mr. H. C. Marchant, treasurer, Charlottesville, Va. Money is needed to carry on the Sunday-school All communications for homes should
